April 2024

Welcome to our first newsletter! As we step into April, we're excited to share the latest updates, upcoming events and behind-the-scenes from last month with you. Let's dive in!

March Highlights

March has been an exciting whirlwind for us! We kicked things off by introducing our company to the world, sharing our vision and mission, and we've been blown away by the support and messages we've received.

Thanks to the fantastic Time & Space Commission from Sadler's Wells, we've had the opportunity to dive into research, exploring creative audio descriptions for our upcoming production. Alongside this, we've been supporting our talented company dancer, Helen Davies, in developing her dance practice and new creative ideas through a micro commission from Bradford25 x Unlimited.

Additionally, we've been running tailored workshops for blind and visually impaired community in London and Leeds and announced new series of workshops in Bradford and Harrogate.

Oh, and did we mention? We've got some fantastic news! We've received funding from Arts Council England for our next project, allowing us to continue creating inclusive works co-crafted and performed by blind, visually impaired and sighted dancers. We're excited for what's to come!

Next month...

April is shaping up to be an exciting month for us at Unbound Dance Theatre! We're thrilled to continue our outreach within the blind and visually impaired community with workshops planned in Leeds and Bradford. Additionally, we're getting ready for our first in-person event: 'Shifting Perspective: A Symposium on Inclusive Dance,' on April 26th, where we'll be sharing some of our latest research and inclusive dance practices. With guest speakers, performances and engaging discussions, it's bound to be an inspiring event for all involved. Don't worry if you can't make in-person, we will be live-streaming too!

Following the symposium, we'll be back into the studio to continue creating 'Fireflies at Dawn' (formerly known as Feathers). We're gearing up for our premiere at the Alhambra Studio in Bradford on June 11th, and we couldn't be more excited to bring this piece to life!

With such a busy month ahead, we're looking forward to the opportunity to connect with you in person and share more about the incredible work we're doing. Stay tuned for updates and details on these upcoming events – we can't wait to see you there!
