October 2024

Hello everyone,

With the start of the academic year keeping everyone busy, we're excited to be back in action and ready for a vibrant autumn ahead!

Let's take a look at everything we've been up to in September, from workshops, digital content and exciting new consultancy, and what's coming up in October.

September Highlights

Our community workshops are back in full swing, and it has been such a pleasure to have everyone back in the studio dancing together again. There are still spaces available, so if you know any blind or visually impaired individuals who would love to experience the joy of dancing—along with the physical, mental health benefits, and the connection to a supportive community—please spread the word!

This month, we also launched a digital series featuring insightful talks from researchers and collaborators, covering topics like inclusivity, consent, innovative technology, and the experience of dancing as a blind person.

Lastly, we're thrilled to share that Unbound has been working as a consultant on Strictly Come Dancing! We've been facilitating sensitivity training and raising awareness of the blind and visually impaired living experience for the teams at the BBC.

What's next?

In October, we'll continue our engagement and outreach with the blind and visually impaired community through our workshops and events.

To kick off the month, we're excited to share the brand-new trailer for Fireflies at Dawn! While we wait for the opportunity to bring the show back to the stage, we're happy to offer a glimpse of the performance and share some wonderful highlights and feedback from our audience.

We can't wait to continue sharing our work and connecting with more of you in the future. Your support has been instrumental in helping us bring inclusive and meaningful dance experiences to life. If you believe in the power of dance and the importance of accessibility as much as we do, we invite you to consider making a donation. Every contribution, no matter how small, makes a significant impact and enables us to expand our workshops, reach more communities, and continue creating performances that touch hearts and minds. Thank you for your continued support.
